

Greetings!

Bloom into being this month by making great choices - Choose to create Success in Your Life and in Your Career!

Success is a Choice

Success is not an end result. Much like happiness, it's a process and it occurs through the choices we make. Success is not an "all-at-once-amazing-mind-blowing-results" thing. It comes one decision at a time - and also from the things we learn from each decision.

You have the ability to choose to believe in your success. What your conscious mind believes, your subconscious strives to achieve. Belief is the catalyst which takes the dream and turns the focus into a plan to get there. Never underestimate the power of belief.

Book of the Month

Delivering Happiness: A Path to Profit, Passions, and Purpose

by Tony Hsieh

Choose to be emotional about your success. Belief plus emotion are unstoppable. If you have utter belief, then you will develop emotion. Sometimes only the most powerful emotional circumstances are the catalyst for change and help you move toward success instead of away from it.

You can choose success, or you can choose to stay safe and do what you do now. Guess what - you will still be doing the same in ten years time. The question is - do you want to choose success in your life and in your career?

This month, I'd like to challenge you to sincerely choose success in everything you do!!!

5 Tips on making choices for success:

1. Believe in yourself
2. Consider your priorities
3. Know your values
4. Surround yourself with the type of people you want to be
5. Adopt a mentor

Career Corner -- Executive Recruiters

Do you want to stand out and get noticed by an Executive Recruiter? Here are some helpful hints to using a recruiter for your job search:

One of the most successful ways to find a good recruiter is to tap into your current network. So, not only are you asking about career opportunities, you are also asking about recruiters. Another strategy is to time it right. Recruiters are much more tied up with potential clients later in the day, so make your calls early. Try to be the first person they speak to in the morning.

Provide a standard resume that highlights your successes and keep it simple with no gimmicks.

Communicating is a key aspect to most jobs, so show off stellar communication skills and finally, Stay in touch during times of employment. Don't let accepting a job mean the end of a relationship with a recruiter. Make time to check in every 3 to 6 months. This way you will be building a long term relationship rather than starting all over in a panic when you find yourself changing careers in the future.
